Registration Criteria

Members of the working media will be required to supply one of the following materials at registration in order to receive press accreditation to the conference. In addition to conference events, activities and facilities will only be granted to journalists with proper identification.

Staff Journalists from News Gathering Organizations: Be prepared to submit a copy of your valid Press Credential, a copy of your business card, a copy of current masthead clearly displaying your name and editorial title or an industry-related article you have written within the last six months.

Freelance Journalists and Photojournalists: Submit a letter (on letterhead) from an editorial contact at the publication indicating that you are covering the conference and exhibition for that publication. Please submit letters via email to Silvia Farag, Silvia.Farag@hq.dhs.gov, or fax to 703-235-5541.

Analysts: Provide a copy of your business card with name, title and analyst firm logo, as well as a copy of a relevant research report or briefing published within the last year that clearly displays your authorship.

Please note that the following groups are NOT ELIGIBLE for media badges (no exceptions):

- Production companies
- Marketing and public relations professionals
- Personal/non-commercial news website writers
- All others not included above in the guidelines do not qualify as media

We reserve the right to limit the press attendance from individual organizations.
